

Prince Hall Holding #300 Reinstatement Frequently Asked Questions/Answers:

Q. Do I need a background check to reinstate?

A. YES. The administrative procedure to reinstate in Prince Hall Holding #300 requires a background check. THE ONLY EXEMPTION IS A MEMBER THAT HAS DISCHARGED/RETIRED FROM THE MILITARY IN THE PAST 30 DAYS OR HAS CURRENT MILITARY CLEARANCE.

Q. Can someone else get a member reinstated?

A. NO. To ensure that we protect personal information for our members, it is required that the member wishing to reinstate or get information about reinstating needs to complete the process individually.

Q. Can someone call and get information about another member?

A. NO. To ensure that we protect personal information for our members, it is required that the member wishing to obtain information about membership, must inquire himself.

Q. Do I have to fill out a petition to reinstate?

A. YES. It is a requirement to fill out the petition for reinstatement.

Q. Can I reinstate and DEMIT in the same day?

A. NO. Once reinstatement is complete, you've received your dues card, visit the Lodge, research, and fully understand what leaving Oklahoma Jurisdiction means, then you can absolutely complete the DEMIT application and pay $25.00.
